Why do you want to serve as a member of the SISD Board of Trustees? To advocate for SISD student to help ensure that they have the necessary resources to develop and expand their academic potential and success.

What goals would you like to see accomplished in SISD over the next two years? _____

1. Use all district resources effectively and efficiently to the maximum benefit of the students. 2. Recruit, retain, & support effective administrators, teachers and staff.

What skills, knowledge, experience, etc. can you offer to the district? I have taught 3 years in the public school system and being a Family & Consumer Sciences teacher I understand the importance of extracurricular opportunities and experiences.

Meggie Hunter has three years of teaching experience in Texas Public schools. Meggie taught one year at a small school district outside of Dallas, Quinan, ISD, and was able to see the contrast by spending the next 2 years in Frisco ISD, which is one of the fastest growing public school districts in the nation. She is currently employed by SunLove Travel as a travel agent.

Educated in Dimmitt ISD and Nazareth ISD, Meggie earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Restaurant, Hotel & Institutional Management from Texas Tech University in 2009. She also holds a teaching certificate in Family & Consumer Science.

“My mother, grandmother, and numerous relatives were teachers and they fostered in me a deep appreciation of the importance of education. I believe that my experiences, understanding of education and experiences as a mother, will help me to provide a different prospective to our growing school district. As a board member, I will try to advocate for Shallowater ISD students to help ensure that they have the necessary resources to develop and expand their academic potential and success. I will work to provide open channels of communication between the Board and the community to empower our district.”

Meggie is married to her high school sweetheart Ryan Hunter, who is employed by FirstCapital Bank of Texas in Lubbock. They have three sons – Hayden (7), Hance (3), and Henry (2).

She and her family are active in the First Baptist Church in Shallowater and numerous community activities.
